Section 120.71 is created to read:

120.71 Disqualification of agency personnel.--

(1) Any individual serving alone or with others as an agency head shall be disqualified from serving in an agency proceeding for bias, prejudice, or interest, or other causes for which a judge may be recused. If the disqualified individual holds his position by appointment, the appointing power may appoint a substitute to serve in the matter from which the individual is disqualified. If the individual is an elected official, the Governor may appoint a substitute to serve in the matter from which the individual is disqualified.

(2) Any agency action taken by a duly appointed substitute for a disqualified individual shall be as conclusive and effective as if agency action had been taken by the agency as it was constituted prior to any substitution.

CHAPTER 78-425

Section 12. Subsection (1) of section 120.71, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

120.71 Disqualification of agency personnel.--

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of s. 112.3143, any individual serving alone or with others as an agency head shall be disqualified from serving in an agency proceeding for bias, prejudice, or interest, or other causes for which a judge may be recused. If the disqualified individual holds his position by appointment, the appointing power may appoint a substitute to serve in the matter from which the individual is disqualified. If the individual is an elected official, the Governor may appoint a substitute to serve in the matter from which the individual is disqualified.

Section 2. Section 120.71, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of s. 112.3143, any individual serving alone or with others as an agency head may shall be disqualified from serving in an agency proceeding for bias, prejudice, or interest when any party to the agency proceeding shows just cause by a suggestion filed within a reasonable period of time prior to the agency proceeding, or other causes for which a judge may be recused. If the disqualified individual holds his position by appointment, the appointing power may appoint a substitute to serve in the matter from which the individual is disqualified. If the individual is an elected official, the Governor may appoint a substitute to serve in the matter from which the individual is disqualified. However, if a quorum remains after the individual is disqualified, it shall not be necessary to appoint a substitute to serve in the matter from which the individual is disqualified.

(2) Any agency action taken by a duly appointed substitute for a disqualified individual shall be as conclusive and effective as if agency action had been taken by the agency as it was constituted prior to any substitution.

(3) The Administration Commission shall adopt rules of procedure to implement this section.
