I. SUMMARY:

The Division of Statutory Revision of the Office of Legislative Services is required, by statute, to conduct a systematic and continuing study of the Florida Statutes. The purpose of this study is to recommend to the Legislature changes that will remove inconsistencies, redundancies, and unnecessary repetition from the statutes; improve clarity and facilitate correct interpretation; correct grammatical and typographical errors; and delete obsolete, repealed, or superseded provisions. These recommendations are submitted to the Legislature in the form of technical, nonsubstantive reviser's bills.

This bill is a reviser's bill drafted by the Division of Statutory Revision under the authority of s. 11.242(5)(i), Florida Statutes. It deletes statutes provisions that have become obsolete, had their effect, or have become impliedly repealed or superseded. The bill also deletes statutes provisions that will become obsolete, have their effect, serve their purpose, or be impliedly repealed or superseded in 2000, effective upon the date specified in text beyond which there is no further need for the provision. Except by report of the Committee on Rules & Calendar, a reviser's bill cannot be amended except to delete a bill section.

This bill has no fiscal impact.

B. PRESENT SITUATION:

The Division of Statutory Revision, under the authority and requirements of s. 11.242, Florida Statutes, submits reviser’s bills to the rules committees of both houses as needed. This reviser’s bill serves to repeal entire sections or whole subunits [subsections, paragraphs, etc.] of sections that are obsolete, have had their effect, or have served their purpose pursuant to s. 11.242(5)(i), Florida Statutes.

C. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

The effect of this bill is of a technical nature only; reviser's bills do not contain substantive changes. The bill will delete obsolete provisions that no longer serve any purpose in the statutes.
