SUMMARY ANALYSIS

HB 7007 passed the House on January 25, 2012, and passed the Senate on February 13, 2012. This is a general reviser's bill of technical nature that deletes expired or obsolete language; corrects cross references and grammatical errors; removes inconsistencies, redundancies, and unnecessary repetition in the statutes; improves the clarity of the statutes and facilitates their correct interpretation; and confirms the restoration of provisions unintentionally omitted from republication in the Legislature's acts during the amendatory process.

Section 11.242, F.S., requires the Division of Statutory Revision of the Office of Legislative Services to conduct systematic and continuing study of Florida's statutes and laws for the purpose of recommending to the Legislature changes that would:

- Remove statutory inconsistencies, redundancies, and unnecessary repetitions;
- Improve clarity; and
- Facilitate correct and proper interpretation.

Such changes include:

- Corrections to grammatical and typographical errors;
- Removal of expired or obsolete statutes and law; and
- Transfer, consolidation, and renumbering of sections, subsections, chapters, and titles.

These recommendations are submitted to the Legislature as technical, non-substantive reviser's bills.

Pursuant to House Rule 12.3(e), a reviser's bill cannot be amended except to delete a bill section.

The bill has no fiscal impact.

The bill was approved by the Governor on February 24, 2012, ch. 2012-5, Laws of Florida. The bill becomes effective on the 60th day after adjournment sine die.
